

Provincial gold for skater

"It all felt right," Charlene Anderson of the Elk Point Skating Club said of her gold medal performance in the Junior Ladies Freeskate Event at the Alberta Winterskate Championships in Red Deer, March 21. "I felt calm throughout - everything went smooth. I was really happy with my skate."

The sixteen-year-old, Grade 11 student has been skating for just over six years, and now hopes to turn professional and go into coaching.

Sandra Lindenback, Ms Anderson's coach through all six years of private lessons, said the 3:39 minute program in the Provincial B Finals was "the best she's ever skated. It made my day - I KNEW she could skate like that." Ms Anderson was one of six competing at her level, which was determined by the tests she has completed. No senior skaters competed.

The medal-winning performance was "even better" than Ms Anderson's Gold Freeskate test efforts two weeks earlier, the coach said. Ms Anderson has part of her figure test to complete, and will hopefully attain Triple Gold status this summer. In her final year as an amateur skater, "it's really nice to have an ending like this," Coach Lindenback said.

"It's always been a pleasure to teach Charlene. She's a hard worker. Nothing ever came easy to her, and when she's coaching, she tends to take a little longer with the kids." Ms Anderson and the other junior coaches are "a great asset to the club. Without them, the club couldn't function." The junior coaches work with young skaters who are on the waiting list for private lessons.

PROVINCIAL GOLD MEDALLIST - Charlene Anderson proudly displays the Alberta Winterskate Junior Ladies' Freeskate trophy she won last weekend in Red Deer, where she competed against the top skaters in the province.

Bantams bring home silver

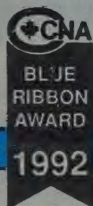

The combined Bantam Elks and Bantam Lightning team took the silver in the D event of the Value Drug Mart 10th Annual Spring Classic this weekend in Calgary. In the final game in the D event, the Elk Point team was narrowly squeezed out 4-3 by the Calgary 7-Clubs team. Elk Point marksmen were Conway Roscoe, Jacques de Moissac, and Jeff Dunlop. Assists were provided by Joey Youngchief, Irwin Easthope, and a combination of Rick Piotrowski and Mark Woytkiw.

Elk Point earned their way into the final in a semi-final Saturday evening against another Calgary team, P.S.A. No. 2, scoring nine goals to Calgary's three. It was a well-rounded effort, with hat tricks from Chris Berlingette and Travis Pankiw, and a single from Irwin Easthope, Conway BIENVENUE A ELK POINT! - Seventeen Grade 9 students from Baie Comeau, Quebec, and two adult supervisors were in Elk Point last week as part of the exchange program which will see our students headed east to visit them at the end of April. The visiting students are: Jennifer Truchon, Cindy Therrien, Isabelle Simard, Isabelle Gauthier, Katy Gauthier, Annick Decelles, Jessica Martel, Helene Cimon, Julie Lacasse, Annie Gagnon, Chantale Poulin, Daniel Mercier, David St-Pierre, Frederic Gerard, Frederic Levesque, Mark Beaulieu and Jean-Philippe Grondin. Supervisors are Serge Bouchard and Lorraine Haddad. During the week in the Elk Point area, the visitors toured the Fort George - Buckingham House Interpretive Centre, Long Lake Cree Nation, the Canadian Salt Plant and the oil field, as well as taking part in several social events.

Town sets annual meeting date

The Town of Elk Point has set Tuesday, April 27 at 7:30 p.m. as the date for their Annual Ratepayers Meeting in the Elks Lodge Room. This meeting is intended as an opportunity for local residents to hear reports from Council's various committees and to give them an opportunity to ask questions about the Town's operations and activities.

Town Auditor Allen Warawa was in attendance at last Monday's regular Council meeting, to present the 1992 financial statement. Council perused the document at some length, with Warawa pointing out the highlights. The document has now gone to the printers, and will be mailed to Elk Point ratepayers in the near future.

A representative from a St. Paul real estate firm visited Council to ask for access to tax figures for properties which are listed for sale. Council later agreed to continue the present policy of only releasing these figures to the property owner, or with a request in writing from the property owner.

Council decided not to accept any of the tenders received for a Town-owned hand gun which had originally been purchased in the days when Elk Point had a Town Police officer. Instead, the firearm will be rendered inoperable and will be preserved as a historical artifact of that time.

Rezoning

First reading was given to a bylaw which would rezone a large lot at the corner of Railway Avenue and 54 Street, which is presently zoned R3 - multiple family dwelling, to R2 - single family dwelling. The recent purchaser of the property wishes to renovate the present dwelling and hook up to utilities, which cannot be done under the present zoning. A public hearing on the rezoning will be held April 13 at 6:30 p.m.

Several members of Council agreed to be celebrity cooks at the Volunteer Week pancake supper, April 22.

Councillor Vern King reported on the Northeast Regional Marketplace Program meeting in Two Hills, March 10. The program has been approved for a $50,000 grant,

OORP hosts district meeting

Elk Point Order of the Royal Purple hosted their fellow members from lodges in St. Paul, Myrnam and Two Hills at the annual District

Meeting on Sunday, March 28. Just under fifty members were present for the full afternoon of activities.

Mayor Ed Buck and Exalted

Ruler Bill Jennissen of the Elk Point BPO Elks Lodge were on hand to offer greetings at the beginning of the meeting. Mayor Buck said the OORP has been "one of the leading lights in the community since its inception," and offered a sincere hope that it will continue to thrive.

The Elk Point Lodge performed the opening ceremony as well as a moving and thought provoking Draping of the Charter, in memory of departed members. Honored Royal Lady Sharon Algot reported that her lodge has 52 members, down three from the 1992 total. She outlined the activities and contributions of the lodge, which gave out a long list of donations in the past year, totalling well over $1300.

St. Paul OORP Lodge presided at the Initiation Ceremony, in which Irene Pilisko was welcomed to the Elk Point Lodge. HRL Berthe Lafrance said this had been a special honor, as Mrs. Pilisko was a former student of hers. St. Paul's membership has dropped four in the past year, and now stands at 27 ladies. HRL Lafrance said that while the membership in all four of the district's lodges is small, "the quality is there. It's surprising what they do for our communities."

Myrnam Lo'ge, whose HRL Dolores Wowk said is holding its own membership-wise at 27, performed the colorful Pansy Ceremony.

After a brief coffee break, the Two Hills Lodge led the Sunshine March. HRL Gladys Rudyk was pleased to report that her membership has increased by two to 19 members.

District Deputy Erica Bender reported a busy and successful year, during which she and three other ladies from the Elk Point Lodge, PDD Alvina Schuhmacher, PHRL Lois Sharek and HRL Sharon Algot, attended the national convention in Ontario. This year's convention will be in Red Deer, and DD Bender urged lodges to send as many members as possible, as it is a very beneficial experience.

She also attended a three day seminar in Calgary, which she found was a "great learning experience." She has visited all four lodges, and found them all busy, and with officers well versed in their duties. She thanked the St. Paul Lodge for hosting the Friendship Afternoon and Travelling Gavel, and the Elk Point Lodge for planning the District Meeting.

PHRL Lena Stepa was subsequently nominated, elected by acclamation and installed as the new District Deputy for 1993-94. This was followed by the District Deputy Drill, by the Elk Point Lodge, with the new DD taking part in her role as part of the Drill Team.

Supreme Life Member Berthe Lafrance gave a brief address as representative to the Supreme Lodge. She is "very proud of our lodges. They are small but mighty. They are going through hard times, but are doing a good job." Recruiting new members is "important to an extent," but in her opinion, "keeping the members we have is also important, even if we can't always do exactly what we're supposed to." HRL Lafrance told her audience that "the main thing is survival. We must keep what we have and keep going. We're all a group of dedicated ladies, we have fun when we get together. I am very optimistic that we are four lodges who will survive."

Following the Closing Ceremony by the Elk Point Lodge, the ladies enjoyed some lighthearted entertainment by special guest "Ugly Henrietta" prior to the fine banquet catered by the Elk Point Ukrainian Dance Club.

Letter to the Editor Policy

The Elk Point Review welcomes letters to the editor. They should be as brief as possible - a maximum length of 300 words is suggested. Unsigned letters will not be published and writers should include a phone number where they may be reached. When a letter is directed at a specific individual or group, the party or parties concerned will be given the opportunity to provide a response in the same issue of the newspaper. Please address letters to: The Editor, Box 309, Elk Point, Alberta T0A 1A0.

What's Happening At COMMUNITY SERVICES

ELK POINT CHILD CARE SERVICES PROVIDES TRAINING FOR PROVIDERS

Because we care what happens to your child while he/she is absent from you, all our child care givers (providers) who operate a Family Day Home receive on-going training either in the form of monthly visits from the Coordinator / Home Visitor from Elk Point Child Care Services, or they are given the opportunity to attend educational workshops that are held on various topics throughout the year.

One of our providers, Mrs. Juanita Buck, recently attended a workshop in Lloydminster, Saskatchewan which was titled "Making the Most of Early Childhood Opportunities." She reported that it was excellent and was glad that she had had the opportunity to attend. The keynote speaker, Dr. J. Hyche, addressed the topic of "Integrating Environmental and Behavior Management Techniques Into Day Care / Day Home Settings."

In Elk Point, over a four month period, Mr. Merrill Clark, Family Life Program Manager with the Health Unit in St. Paul, has been addressing various topics around the Parenting Issue. These sessions have been opened to the public and are very worthwhile. The last in this series will be held on Thursday, April 22. Mr. Clark will be addressing the topic, "Preventing Burnout and Positive Parenting." Contact the Further Education Office if you are interested in attending.

If you are interested in learning more about Elk Point Child Care Services please call Deanna Easthope at 724-3933 or at the Community Services Office on Fridays at 724-3800.

ROCK AND ROLL CANDIDATE

Take a certain French Canadian political leader running for office against a very popular Rock and Roll singer. Add an array of other wacky politicians from "Anytown, Canada," combined with the music of Jerry Lee Lewis. Rock and Roll Candidate promises to be fun for all. Your ticket purchase guarantees a fun-filled evening of dinner and theatre. So mark Friday, April 2 on your calendar and be sure to attend Rock and Roll Candidate. Doors open at 6 p.m. at the St. Paul Recreation Centre. Tickets are $35 and can be purchased through Elk Point Community Services (724-3800) or the Town of St. Paul FCSS (645-5311).

C.A.R.E. CONFERENCE FOR WOMEN

The C.A.R.E. (Communication, Awareness, Resources and Esteem) Conference for Women will be held in Marwayne on Saturday, April 24. Select-A-Sessions include: self esteem, communication, menopause, interior decorating, streetproofing your kids, will and estate planning, home / career, sexuality, stress management and more! Registration will be $20 with dinner included in the fee. Pre-registration before April 8 is encouraged as the number of participants in each session may be limited. Registration forms are available at Community Services or you can call 847-3809 for more information.

Editorial

A winter without records

Wouldn't you say that winter 1992 - 93 has been a dull, boring season? Apparently the weatherman has got his marbles mixed up, and hardly anything went according to the usual plan.

First off, we got a generous touch of winter while we were still in the gardening mode, with six or so inches of snow on the 21st of August, certainly nothing we pined for; this messy event flattened crops and gardens, broke many branches, which we can still see hanging up there, loaded with faded golden leaves, too insulted and stunned by the rude treatments meted out to fall to earth and their natural decay.

This rough and unwarranted attack played havoc with the still-standing crops, flattening, twisting and otherwise abusing them, to the distress of the farmers. My own raspberry bushes, still laden with a fairly decent output of berries, were twisted and bowed and broken. I still have doubts they will recover.

Immediately the snow dropped off, and started to evaporate away, having done its dirty deed, the frost cut in. Whatever wasn't squashed and / or broken, was frozen. Potatoes are protected by the soil above them, but once the tops are wilted down, said spuds don't grow any larger, hence, a piddling-in-size crop.

So after four or five nights of four or five degrees of frost, the sun came out briefly, along with some drizzle, and fall went on into September, admittedly ablaze with the most colorful show we've had in some years. (Thanks for that - I do love fall colors!)

Still - this was no record. On we went through October, with some drizzles, some frosts, some flurries, none of it spectacular. I guess the only outstanding event of October was the Referendum, which also turned out pretty dismal.

November echoed October for dismal, cloudy, with a few flurries, and gradual cooling, ending up with more actual moisture content than the rainfall in the summer months when we needed it.

A continual downhill slide in temperatures through December got us down to the meanest weather, around Christmas, with my own recorded low of -42 degrees Celsius on the 30th. Which was also the night I got home from a Christmas visit with some of my kids, to find my water system frozen. Snowfall was miserly, for an Alberta winter, about 8 to 10 inches for the month. (We used to get that much overnight, and numerous times during this shortest and coldest month.)

Well, goodbye, December

and 1992, hello January and 1993! Still beastly cold, but setting no records, we waded into the New Year. On through the first three weeks, with continuing miserable cold, and a few snow showers, all of which amounted to very little moisture for our famished land. Our January thaw, to which we feel deserving, arrived on the 25th, not rip-off-your-coat' hot, but a pleasant change from the six-week cold snap.

Now, a January thaw is a welcome thing, we need this to keep us sane, if the preceding weeks have been normal Alberta cold; but did we need to have ALL the snow melted, evaporated and gone, so the land will dry out and wither away even faster than it's already doing? I say, no.

True, some of the melted snow ran into the many ditches we must now resort to, since all our sloughs and small lakes have - shall we say - bit the dust? I suppose the creeks will run for about fifteen minutes, the first day it gets really warm, and that will be the end of our spring run-off. Remember when it used to boil and rant for days, we could hear the turmoil a mile away, and we all went out and floated our 'chip' boats, and opened the channels so the flow would not be impeded?

Alberta Trails

By Irene Magnusson

Oh! glorious days of spring! Sloughs rising, creeks overflowing the roads, rubber boots a must, and the rafts got their spring action!

The recorded (measured) rainfall in my yard, in 1992, from April 1st to September 30th (the growing months) was 8.31 inches. I also melted and measured all snow that fell in my rain gauge during the other six months; this amounted to 2.67 inches. However, I don't consider that completely accurate, as some would be blown aside, if the wind were strong.

Just for comparison, the preceding years (April 1 to September 30) were: 1987 - 7.54 inches; 1988 - 12.83 inches; 1989 - 11.81 inches; 1990 - 10.10 inches and 1991 - 8.73 inches. I have records for many years, but won't bore you with them. 1988 was the year we got 5 1/4 inches in the first week of July, which caused a fair bit of flooding.

It seems to me, when I went to school back in the early '30s, that we were taught the average Alberta (central) rainfall was about 18 inches.

Small wonder we are reduced to feeling like rats in the desert!

So, Winter 1992 - 93, you did not produce much of anything, in the line of weather records. Very little decent skiing, although the snow wasn't bad, for awhile, just too cold for comfort; then glare ice, after the thaws, only suitable for bumps and bruises. Now it's up to Spring, 1993. Maybe she will treat us more kindly!

Our Past

Steve Andrishak

Shortly after the turn of the century, many settlers took out homesteads in the Elk Point district. They came from the United States, Eastern Canada, the British Isles and from many European nations. Many of them stayed for the remaining years of their lives, while others decided to leave for one reason or another. Since their belongings were difficult to move from one place to another, many sold their household goods, machinery, livestock, and real estate by public auction before leaving our district.

Every town or village usually had one or more auctioneers who were capable of conducting auction sales. The auctioneer agreed to sell the farmer's household goods as well as the rest of his belongings to the highest bidder in return for a share of the receipts. The goods to be sold were all listed on a sales bill then widely circulated so that the sale received sufficient advertisement. It was strongly believed that the bigger the crowd the better chance the sale would be a success.

One of Elk Point's first auctioneers was George M. Goben. His sales ad appeared in a 1912 Vermilion Standard and read: 'George M. Goben - Farm and General Auctioneer, Elk Point, Alta.' Another early district auctioneer was Fred E. Van Arnam. He placed an ad in the 1918 Elk Point Agricultural Fair booklet which read "If you want to buy or sell a farm or have an auction sale see F. E. Van Arnam, Elk Point, Alta. - I am also the local agent for CPR land." One of our better known auctioneers was Capt.

B.C. Edwards. Barney, as he was known to all, started his auctioneering trade in Ponoka, Alta., later moving to the Mooswa district (Lindbergh). His business card read: 'Capt. B.C. Edwards, Auctioneer - "The Man Who Makes Your Auction Sale A Money Maker."' Barney remained in our district for many years before moving to British Columbia where he passed away.

Other nearby auctioneers were W.M. Brunelle, Dan Joyal, Sam Hassan and J. Victor Lafrance, all from St. Paul. Checking an old 1920 Vermilion Standard the following auctioneers appeared in the paper's directory: Campbell and Dickinson (Maughan), Wm. Young, A.M. West, and C. Swan. Others closer to home were Ed Caskey, Paul Petrosky and W.J. Casterton. They conducted auction sales throughout our district during the 1930s and on.

All auctioneers had their own little way of trying to hold the interest of the buying public. They were never short of words. Many kept up a continuous chatter of meaningless words or phrases such as 'Abba Dabba Dabba' or 'let's get along now,' throughout the sale.

Good auctioneers always made the difference between a good sale and a bad one. The more talented auctioneers soon became well known and were in demand, while the others found it difficult to survive and eventually gave up in the auctioneering field.

Many humorous happenings occur at auction sales. I recall one auctioneer who reminded his audience not to be afraid to bid openly - he'd tell them when their bidding was too high. At another auction sale a man and his wife became separated in the crowd and began bidding against each other, running up the cost considerably.

During another sale in progress, the auctioneer was suddenly interrupted by his clerk who whispered something in his ear. The auctioneer then straightened up and made the following announcement. "A gentleman in the crowd lost his pocketbook with $600 in it - he will give $50 to anyone finding it." He no sooner made the announcement than someone in the audience raised his arm and hollered, "I'll give $60!"

The auctioneer, like many other tradesmen, performed a useful service - that of getting top dollar for the person disposing of his real estate, livestock, machinery and household goods.

Education week open house

FASTER THAN A SPEEDING TURTLE! - Monica Naber and Kali Cousins point out their positions on the 'turtle trail' for speedy mathematicians in their Grade 3B class. Those 'turtles' who reach the pond with their quick answers receive a prize, we're told.

Cattle commission

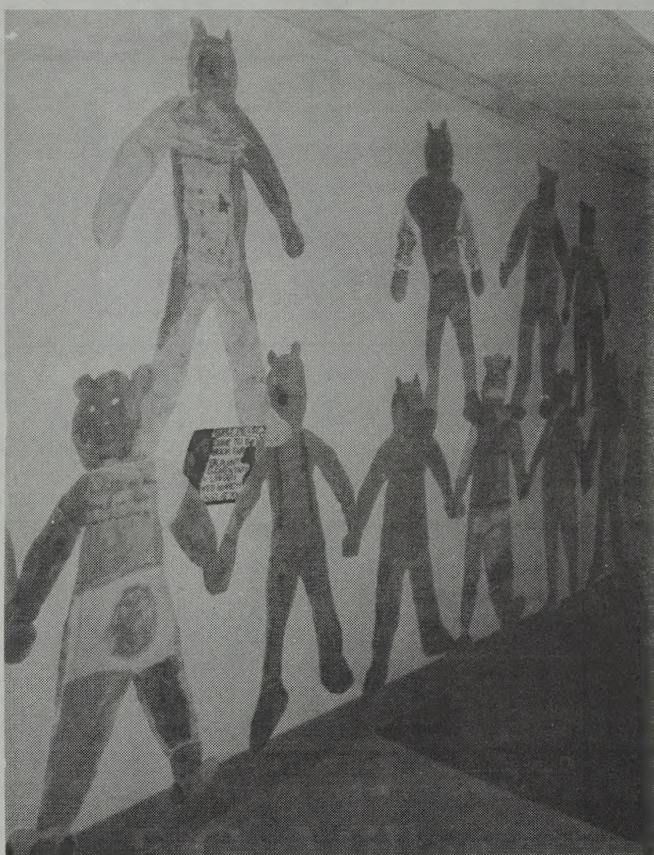

Zone 8 delegates of the Alberta Cattle Commission (A.C.C.) have been quite active during the last few months. A number of resolutions from the annual general meeting have been dealt with in committees.

Over 500 producers acted as volunteer instructors for yet another successful Classroom Agricultural Program. Over 26,000 grade one students benefited from this year's interaction with primary food producers.

The ACC board of directors is still spending considerable time responding to the court challenge by some producers who feel that the checkoff should be refundable. Producers will be able to express their feelings on this issue this fall at a series of country meetings, where they will be able to vote on this question.

One of the A.G.M. resolutions directed zone delegates to hold an extra general zone meeting during the year. Zone 8 delegates decided to hold two producer meetings, both on April the 13th. The meeting in St. Paul will be from 11 a.m.-3 p.m. at the Seniors' Centre, with lunch served at noon. The Vermilion meeting will be at the Vermilion Elks Hall at 5 p.m., with supper served at 6 p.m. There will be a $10.00 charge to cover the cost of the meal. Tickets are available at the D.A.'s offices in both St. Paul and Vermilion, as well as from your ACC delegates. The theme of the meeting is "What Climate the 90s?". Featured speaker at both meetings is Dr. Tim Ball, noted climatologist from the University of Manitoba. His address should be of interest to all farmers, as he explains the impact of long and short term climatic changes on agriculture.

A.C.C. delegates will comment on topics of current interest, such as the future of safety nets, market development activities, beef exports, as well as other issues important to beef producers. For further information phone Ray at 724-4317 or Gloria at 632-2455, or Karl at 763-2447.

THE BEAR WALLS - ECS students added a whimsical note to the decor with these bear silhouettes which lined some of the walls for the Elementary School Open House.

Book fair posters

Elk Point Elementary students created a huge array of colorful posters to announce their upcoming Education Week Book Fair. The posters decorated stores and businesses all over Elk Point, after first being judged in a contest, with the winners from each grade winning a free book from the Fair. Winners were as follows: Grade 3A - Carissa Maksymec; 3B - Kali Cousins; 4A - Leanne Longpre; 4B - Jennifer Flanders; 5A - Vickie Jamieson; 5B - Courtney Maksymec; 5C - Michael Povaschuk; 6A - Michelle Hutton; 6B - Kimberley Wilson.

PARENTS

F.G. MILLER SCHOOL

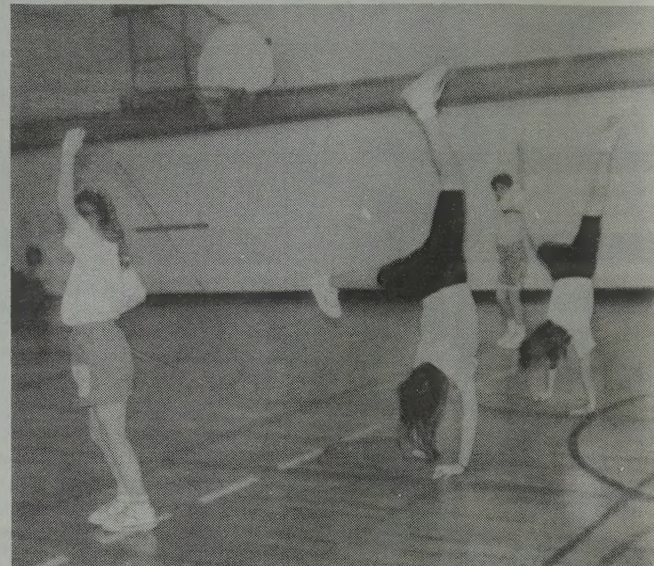

Are you interested in your children's education?

Please come to the parent meeting to discuss general concerns, possibility of forming a new focus group, quality of education, and make preparations for presentation to our next PTA meeting. Your child will benefit from your input and interest at this meeting.

Parent meeting will be held at the F.G. Miller School Cafeteria at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, April 6, 1993.

BOOK FAIR BUSY - Elk Point Elementary's library was filled to the brim Wednesday evening for the annual Education Week Book Fair, which featured a good range of publications for both adults and youngsters.

SKIPPING AND MORE! - Elk Point Elementary School's Skipping Team put on a lively demonstration at Wednesday evening's Education Week Open House.

County science fair

Junior and senior high school students from Mallaig, Elk Point and Heinsburg competed in the County of St. Paul No. 19 Science Fair last Thursday in Heinsburg, with three Elk Point entries and one Mallaig entry taking home the awards.

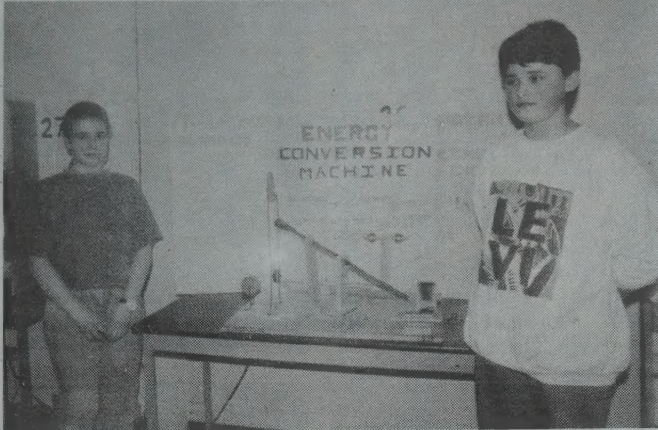

Over twenty exhibits ringed Heinsburg Community Hall for the event, which was judged by Park Ranger Kerry Hope, bilingual parent Danielle Kiss, and publisher and former science teacher Bob Hendriks. A wide variety of subjects, from space aliens to earthquakes to the density of liquids were covered by the displays.

An unexpected result of the effects of rock music on plants won Jaylene Purdy of F.G. Miller High, Elk Point first place in the Junior division. Two other F.G. Miller students, Rocky Pankiw and

An intricate and interesting display on water treatment was entered by the Senior winners, Derek Medema and Jay St. Arnault of Mallaig School. Daniel Peterson, Robert Vankosky and Melanie Ference's exhibit on Toothpaste and Calcium Loss showed surprising results for second place in the Senior division.

CONVERTING ENERGY - Stacey Kozicki and Rocky Pilisko were Junior High runners-up at the County Science Fair with this entry.

DEMONSTRATION DAM - Joni Matthews, Donna Pinder and Dennell Anderson demonstrate the effects of dams on runoff or stream water.

F.G. Miller scientists compete

F.G. Miller's science buffs were out in full force this week, with 45 displays ringing the gymnasium Tuesday for Science Fair judging and public viewing.

The top Senior High display, which later went on to win second place at County level, was a study of "Toothpaste and Calcium Loss" by Daniel Peterson, Robert Vankosky and Melanie Ference.

Junior High exhibits were numerous. In the Grade 7 section, winners included Nadia Wentworth and Rachel Peterson, who concluded that 'easy listening' music was most beneficial to plant growth, while nearby, Jaylene Purdy's plants showed no ill effects from their exposure to rock music. Russell Dale explored "Earthquakes," while Rocky Pilisko and Stacy Kozicki displayed an "Energy Conversion Machine." Shauna Longmore and Gwen Gadwa focused on "Contraceptives" in their display.

Grade 8's top displays were created by Darren Watson and Chris Berlinguette, who demonstrated an "Electric Pen," Dennell Anderson, Joni Matthews and Donna Pinder, who showed the pros and cons of dams, Amber Kopeck and Christa Hammond, who measured "Liquid Density," Sheri Makowecki and Robyn Danyluk, who hoped to convince people not to smoke and David Naber, whose exhibit was entitled "Density."

Boykos celebrate fifty years

Bill and Mildred Boyko celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on January 23. Relatives, friends and neighbors gathered together at the Empress Restaurant to honor the special couple. The head table guests were the original wedding party, bridesmaids Sophie Ference and Pauline Pankiw, best men Fred Borutsky and Harry Shankowski along with the bride and groom, Mildred and Bill. Adding charm at the head table were John Ference and Helen Borutsky. Bill and Mildred entered the restaurant escorted by their granddaughters playing violin.

Granddaughter Roxanne Boyko started the evening with grace before the lovely meal. A toast to the bridal party was presented by granddaughter Rebecca Boyko. The Master of Ceremonies, son-in-law Bob Wasylshen shared many enjoyable memories. Bill met Mildred while out looking for a lost horse at the farm of Dan and Annie Josul. He not only found his horse but a wife, which led to four children and fourteen grandchildren: Henry, Pat, Roxanne, Kevin and Felicia Boyko from Fort Saskatchewan; Bob, Judy, Clint, Dione, Roberta, Brooke, Paige and Shalayne Wasylshen from Vermilion; Gary, Julie, Donovan and Rebecca Boyko from Bonnyville and Dalmer, Marge, Ashley and Lyndsey Boyko from Cambridge Bay, Northwest Territories were all in attendance to celebrate with their parents and grandparents.

All the grandchildren did a vocal tribute to Baba and Guido, singing "Young Love (Strong Love)" and "Grandpa." The Wasylshen girls performed several musical numbers on their violins, "Long, Long Ago," "You Are My Sunshine," and "Down In The Valley." Roberta played a special waltz for Baba and Guido.

A lovely anniversary cake was cut and served to the guests by all the grandchildren.

Messages of anniversary congratulations were received from Ed Buck, Town of Elk Point; John Drobot MLA; Deborah Grey, MP for Beaver River; Premier Ralph Klein; Alberta Lieutenant Governor Gordon Towers; Governor General R. J. Hnatyshyn; Deputy Prime Minister Don Mazankowski; Prime Minister

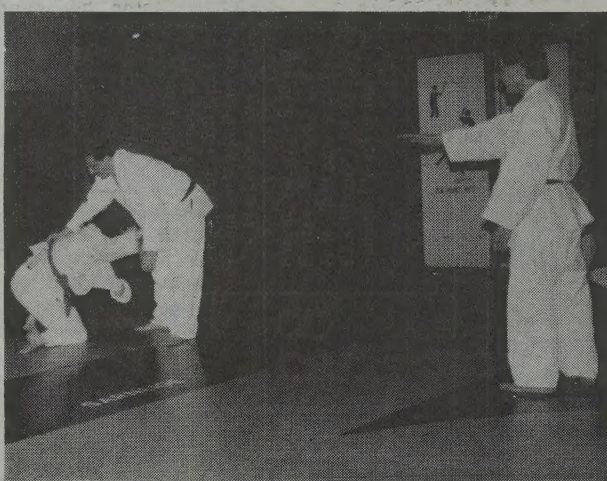

Brian Mulroney; Blessing of the Holy Apostolic Bishop of the Ukrainian Eparchy, Myron Daciuk; and Apostolic Blessing from the Holy Father John Paul II.

Many guests came to the home of Bill and Mildred for a lovely lunch prepared and served by the family. Gifts received were opened and acknowledged at this time.

The entire evening's events were recorded on video by Gary. This celebration was more than anticipated as Bill and Mildred were involved in a vehicle accident only two days before their anniversary. They were released from the hospital only hours before the celebration began. So indeed this was a special occasion that brought them all together. They look forward to many more healthy and happy years together.

JUDO COMPETITION - Elk Point Judo Club was visited by a group of their Lloydminster counterparts for some friendly competition two weeks ago. The Judo Club meets Thursday evenings in the Community Services gym.

County news

Signs

Coun. Ray Danyluk said he had received a request for the county to erect a sign on secondary highway 646 directing people to the Fort George-Buckingham House Interpretive Centre. Council asked Peter Yarmuch to look into the costs involved and also to check with Alberta Transportation to see if it can provide the sign.

Library

Council gave its not of approval to the annual library allocation. Based on $2 per capita, this year's allocation amounts to $12,978. The funds are distributed by the county board to the Elk Point and St. Paul libraries.

WHEN YOU SEED PROVEN BOUNTY CANOLA YOU'RE IN GOOD COMPANY

"It was a dry year in our area, and we still got 32 bushels on Bounty. The straw held up well. Overall I'd say Bounty is very good. If it can do that in a dry year, I'd like to see what it could do in a good year!"

Leonard Fundytus
Myrnam, Alberta

That's how your neighbors see it. PROVEN BOUNTY delivers high yields and is easy to harvest. If you've looked at your neighbours canola crop, and it appeared to be doing better than yours, chances are they seeded PROVEN BOUNTY.

Busy week coming up!

The answer to last week's question, "Who was the last living Father of Confederation, and which province did he represent?" can be found in The Canadian Encyclopedia. Joseph Roberts Smallwood represented Newfoundland in 1949, when the province joined the country of Canada. Joey Smallwood was Newfoundland's first Premier and held that office for 20 years. He died December 17, 1991. How well did you do on that question?

Now we have another question of the week for you: Why is April 1 called APRIL FOOL'S DAY?

Just a reminder to book your table for the Great Weather Spring Sale, sponsored by the Elk Point Public Library on Saturday, April 3, 1993. The price for a table is $10 and the deadline for booking is April 1. This event will be held in the Peter Fidler Centre, next to the Elks Hall, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. The Library will be having a table, if you have any items to donate, it will be very much appreciated. Just bring your items to the library or to the sale on April 3. You can reserve a table by phoning Daphne at 724-4206, Faye at 724-4087 or leave your name at the Library. See you there!

Remember! We are having our Preschool Storytime Easter party on April 2 at 10:30 a.m. Come and join us in this fun event. I wonder if the Easter Bunny will visit?

New Books

Look in our Large Print Section for the novel, They Called Her Mrs. Doc by Alberta author Janet Oke. When Cassandra married her handsome doctor he wanted to move from the city to his hometown out west. Filled with uncertainties of moving from a city to a town, Cassandra wonders if she can be a part of his life.

Thank You

KALYNCHUK, Nick

We wish to extend a sincere thank you to our neighbors, friends and relatives for their kindness and support during the recent loss of our dear husband, father and grandfather, Nick Kalynchuk. Special thanks to Reverend Father Demjan Hohol for his special service; Anne Shtybel for preparing the coffee at the Co-op; the Royal Purple Ladies in Elk Point for catering the lunch; and all those who sent cards, flowers, and made contributions to charity. Your kindness and comfort will never be forgotten.

Roscoe and Jacques de Moissac. Assists came from Irwin Easthope (four), Rick Piotrowski (three), Jeff Dunlop (two), Travis Pankiw, Conway Roscoe, Chris Berlingette, Jacques de Moissac, Joey Youngchief, Rene de Moissac, and Kristen Holthe.

Elk Point began the tournament with a 7-1 loss to last year's tournament A winner, the Brooks Flames. The single goal was scored by Jeff Dunlop with an assist from Ian Kozicky. They lost their second game 6-5 to the Drumheller Hi-way 9 Aces with 15 seconds left in the first overtime period. Elk Point goals were scored by Travis Pankiw (two), Conway Roscoe, Shane Berlingette, and Rene de Moissac. They were assisted by Joey Youngchief, Rene de Moissac, Jacques de Moissac, Irwin Easthope, Conway Roscoe, Rick Robinson, and Jeff Dunlop. These two losses placed the Elk Point team in the D event.

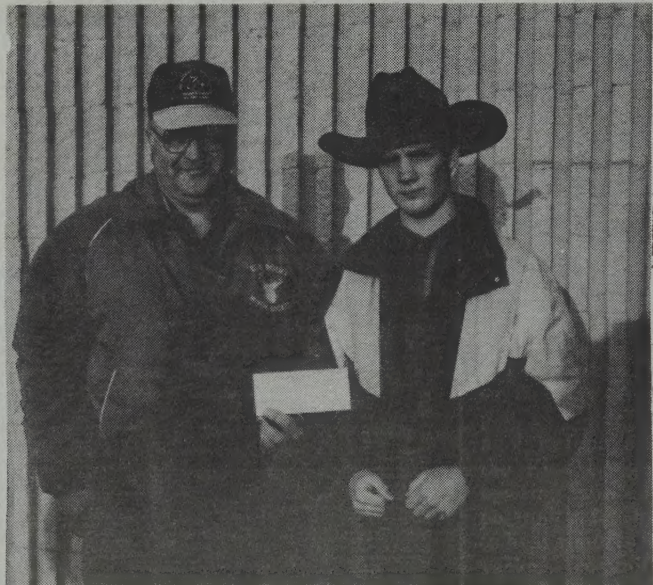

In the third game of the tournament, facing elimination, Elk Point met the Jasper Bearcats. Elk Point won the game 4-3, with goals from Irwin Easthope (two), Kristin Holthe, and Conway Roscoe. Assists came from Jacques de Moissac (two), Joey Youngchief, Rick Piotrowski, and Conway Roscoe. The Bearcats were eliminated from the playoffs, but were awarded the most sportsman-like team award.

The Elk Point Bantams have been participating in the Spring Classic for a number of years, thanks to the sponsorship of the St. Paul Value Drug Mart, the Elk Point Elks Club, and Elk Point and District Minor Hockey. This is our second silver medal in the D event, the first one having been won in 1990. In 1991, Elk Point was named the most sportsmanlike team.

This 10th Anniversary tournament saw an additional event with individual players from each of the 40 Alberta teams participating in a Skills Competition. Team North, with the contributions of Travis Pankiw and goalie Eddie James, were the Skills Competition Champions.

The Bantam Elks and Elk Point Lightning thank the Elk Point Elks and Woody's Trophy and Gift for your team sponsorship all year and for the team sweaters. The Elk Point Bantams would like to thank the St. Paul Value Drug Mart, the Elk Point Elks, and Elk Point and District Minor Hockey for your continued support for our participation in the Calgary Spring Classic. We also thank Woody's for the donation of a video game, and the Neighborhood Grocery for the free rental of movies for the long bus ride. Barry Luciak provided excellent bus service on this trip.

TOWARD THE TRIP - Al Pankiw, President of Elk Point Minor Hockey Association, was up bright and early Thursday morning to present the combined team with a cheque toward their trip. Travis Pankiw accepted the donation on behalf of the boys.

GOOD WISHES - Team sponsors Glenn Harms (left) of Woody's Trophies and Gifts, sponsors of Elk Point Lightning, and Albert Boratynec (right) of Elk Point BPO Elks Lodge, sponsors of the Elk Point Bantam Elks, were on hand when the team departed, to wish team captains Travis Pankiw and Mark Woytkiw the best of luck in the tournament.

HEADED SOUTH - Elk Point's combined Bantam Elks and Bantam Lightning hockey team went south last weekend, not for spring training, but for the Value Drug Mart Tournament which draws teams from all over the province.

which added to the amounts contributed by the member communities, should enable the program to run for two years. Interest in participation has been good, King said, and he feels that the project will go ahead.

The Town plans to present one or more briefs to the Northern Alberta Development Council during their visit to Elk Point on April 20 and will be discussing the content of these during their committee meetings.

Pump repairs on the Town fire truck were found necessary and have since been made. Mayor Buck said that the firemen are very conscious about maintenance of their equipment, and this will be supplemented with occasional visits by the fire truck repair expert who did the recent repair.
